Kenmore Board of Trade December 2010

President's Message

This has been a tremendous opportunity for me to lead this organization as your president for this past year. I am stepping down after seven years. However, I will remain on the Board as an active director. I would like to thank the board of directors for all their support. I would like to give a special thanks to my wife Marie Smith for supporting me in the Kenmore Board of Trade. I would like to wish David Culbertson, president-elect, the best of luck. I am confident David will do a great job in leading this team.

Happy Holidays!

Scott Smith

Kenmore Board of Trade General Meeting – The KBOT General Meeting will not be held this month due to our annual Holiday induction banquet. This year the banquet is being held at Anthes

Prime on Manchester Road. January's meeting will be held at The Church on the Boulevard on January 5th. Lunch and speaker to be announced later.

The Akron Boards of Trade Council had its annual induction ceremony at the Portage Country Club on Thursday November 18th. The facility was just beautiful and very elegant. The food and entertainment was outstanding. The desert was made by our very own Reeves Cake Shop. The First Glance Student Center & Teen Moms Program were presented with a donation from the Kenmore Board of Trade. West Akron Board presented their donation to the Akron Food Bank. There were a total of three Mayors in attendance – Akron, Fairlawn and Cuyahoga Falls. One state representative was also present. The banquet was a huge success!
